Catholic Health Association Statement on Tragic Passing of UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson

WASHINGTON, DC – The Catholic Health Association of the United States (CHA) released the following statement on the tragic passing of UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson.

“CHA and the Catholic health care community were shocked and grieved to learn of the tragic death of UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson,” said CHA President and CEO Sr. Mary Haddad, RSM. “We offer our prayers for healing and consolation for the loved ones of Mr. Thompson. We also extend our sympathy and condolences to the UnitedHealthcare community during this deeply troubling time. As a Catholic health ministry, we affirm the sacredness of life and call on everyone to join us in condemning this and other senseless acts of violence.”
